

RESOLUTION 2012-01
RESOLUTION IN OPPOSITION TO SPLITTING BRADLEY COUNTY
INTO TWO SENATE DISTRICTS

WHEREAS, there are several redistricting scenarios currently under consideration by the Tennessee General Assembly Republican Leadership; and,

WHEREAS, the Tennessee Constitution prohibits dividing any county to form a multi-county senatorial district insofar as it is possible; and,

WHEREAS, several redistricting scenarios include splitting Bradley County into two separate senatorial districts; and,

WHEREAS, it is the opinion of the Bradley County Commission that the redistricting of Bradley County into two senatorial districts would dilute the unified voice and power of Bradley County citizens in the Tennessee General Assembly.

NOW, THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the Bradley County Commission respectfully requests that the Tennessee Republican Leadership, the Tennessee General Assembly, Lieutenant Governor Ron Ramsey and Senator Mike Bell keep the entirety of Bradley County in one senatorial district in the adopted redistricting plan.
